

TAB A

Summary:

The following summary of progress has been prepared to accompany the files of the covert regulations should they be transferred to another unit for completion. The summary is designed primarily for orientation purposes, although some suggestions are offered for material to be included. These suggestions relate to changes which have occurred in policy and procedure since the original drafts were prepared.